Little Town, Great Big Life (A Valentine Novel): Curtiss ...

With a title like “Little Town, Great Big Life”, I was expecting something much more compelling, cozy, unforgettable and heartwarming. I usually adore small town stories with a vast and quirky cast, but this one was a bit of a let-down, to be honest.

Little Town, Great Big Life by Curtiss Ann Matlock - Goodreads

As Winston Valentine, the self-appointed town oracle, often said, the problems of life—all the fear, greed, lust and jealousy, sickness and poverty—are connected to people, and are part of life on earth the world over. It was true, however, that in a place like Valentine getting through life's problems often was a little easier.
